A VILLAINOUS SWINDLE.—There resides about four miles west of Winchester, in Petti coat Gap, a German well known to many of our citizens as Dr. Fischer. Now, some months ago he wended his way to Berkeley county, and assuming the name of Dr. Rose managed to become acquainted with a citizen of that county named Foutz, who from all accounts is an ignorant and credulous man. He was further imposed upon by Rose who pretended to be a very religious and pious character, and scrupulously exact in every christian duty. Mr. Foutz had a lame child, and the doctor, so the story goes, assured Foutz that he was able to effect a radical cure of the child in nine weeks, but that he must implicitly follow every direction of the Doctor. In the first place, Foutz was to lodge in the Doctor's hands the sum of $800, to be deposited by the Doctor in a chest at Foutz's house. Secondly, if any-lody opened said chest, or looked into it, or abstracted the money from it by some hecus-poeus, the lameness of the child would fall upon them. The money was to be kept in the chest for nine weeks and at the end of that time the chest was to be opened, the money taken out, and the child should be found thoroughly recovered and perfectly sound. The Dector in order to impress the mind of Fourz and his wife, quoted various passages of serip

The result was that Foutz placed the $800 in COOK'S CELEBRATED COUGHSYRUP ture to sustain his pretensions. Dr. Rose's alias Fischer's hands to be deposited in the chest, and at the end of nine weeks, the Doctor in the meantime having absquatulated from Foutz' neighborhood and from Berkeley county, the chest was opened, when, lo! there was no money por any sign of money within. The child was still lame.

The swindler has been arrested. There are other charges of a like character against him. - Winchester Times.

A GOOD PRECEDENT. -The tyranuy of servant girls on their mistresses has often been the theme of jokers, poets, playwrights and contributors to the comic papers, and we learn of a case tried yesterday before Justice Handy. on Capitol Hill, which is likely to give a whole some lesson to that indispensable class of nuisances, and if generally known will be of more advantage to housekeepers than all the lunny and witty sarcasms of Punch or Harper. A servant who had been hired by a lady, at six dollars a month left her service in the middle of the month in a capricious fit, and was told by her mistress that she might go, but if she went she must expect no pay. It was conten ded on one side that the contract was for the month, and unless a month's work was performed no wages were due. It was contended on the other side that a certain amount of labor was duly performed and should be paid for. Justice Handy, who is evidently a very sensi ble man, decided, substantially on the ground urged by the defendant, that housekeepers had some rights that servant girls were bound to respect, and dismissed the case because the suit had been brought before the contract term had expired.

The technical grounds on which this decision cedent set. Hereafter let servant girls under stand that when they engage to work by the mouth they are not at liberty to run off at their to the publishers. A PICTURE OF FLOATING WASHINGTON SO CIETY. -The New York Sun's Washington correspondent draws the following picture of Washington society: "Shoddy and Petroleum are spreading their wings here in all their trumpery and splendor. They have taken possession of society, and af feet the airs of their betters in a most ludierous manner. Such intense vulgarity and low breeding have never before been witnessed in high places, nor were they tolerated among those who once gave social tone and elevation to this community. The obstrusion of ignorance, combined with money, no matter how acquired, and the absence of refinement, are noticed to be conspicuous features at the official and semiefficial receptions, as they are called, and at most of the pretentious entertainments. It is quite lunny to see certain persons from New York and elsewhere turning their backs upon their formers friends, setting up for fashion, and thrusting their coarseness forward on every possible occasion. Adventurers, contractors, jobbers, fools, and fifthy intriguers are in the ascendant. They rule, and are the favorites of fortune, necessarily of society. Delica ey and propriety have been put on the retired

The Adrian Times is responsible for the last good story at the expense of a jury. It says that a recent case of assault was tried in that city, on which six jurors voted by ballot. Juror No. 1 voted "No ease of action." No. 2 voted "Salt and batery, Secon DeGree." No 3 deemed the prisoner "Gilty of Salt." No 4 deemed there was "No action of cause," No 5 voted it. "According to Paramy, while No 6 "Assault and Batory"; while No 6 decided the prisoner "Gilty of an a salt only.

An lowa minister stated in a recent sermon that the "Bible was the most important work that had yet been published in the United States."
